JEWISH SOCIAL STUDIES

A Quarterly Journal Devoted to Contemporary and Historical Aspects of Jewish Life

LIST AND SUBJECT INDEX OF ARTICLES, Vols. I-XV

Since its foundation in 1939, JEWISH SOCIAL STUDIES has published more than two hundred and fifty original papers dealing with the varied aspects of Jewish social, economic and cultural life.

It has been the policy of the editors to interpret the term "social studies" in a liberal sense, thus opening their pages to important research for which other means of publication are at present lacking.

Following the forced suspension of many Jewish learned journals in Europe, JEWISH SOCIAL STUDIES has come to serve as a unique vehicle for many significant departments of Jewish scholarship.

JEWISH SOCIAL STUDIES is issued gratis to all members of the Conference on Jewish Relations whose annual contribution is not less than Ten Dollars. For non-members the subscription is Five Dollars. Back numbers are available at a uniform price of One Dollar.
